Note:
For transfer of an equivalent of up to € 33.20 a principal is always charged a fee even in case of "fees to be borne by beneficiary – BEN" instruction.
For transfers in local currencies of the EU and EEA countries (CZK, DKK, EUR, GBP, HUF, CHF, NOK, PLN, RON and SEK) to the EU and EEA countries without conversion on client account instruction BEN will be changed to instruction SHA – the fee will be charged by VUB bank as debit on client account.
When performing payment order with instruction OUR "no expense for beneficiary" expense of a foreign or domestic bank is charged additionally or together with the transfer.
For transfers abroad made in standard, accelerated or express form irrespective of the client's instruction BEN, SHA or OUR, a foreign bank may charge a principal additional fees in case incomplete or incorrect information on a beneficiary of a transfer is provided (incorrect beneficiary's account number, incorrect bank connection, lack of IBAN for transfers in € made to the EU and EEA countries), which impedes automated payment processing. The amount of such fees depends on specific conditions of a respective bank and will be debited to the beneficiary's account.
1) Regulated transfers – standard and accelerated transfers in € up to € 50,000.00 within countries EU and EHP, incl.
