If the claims being set off are denominated in different currencies, the Lender may, for the set-off purposes, convert the amount of any claim into the currency of the other claim using the exchange rate "foreign exchange - purchase (devíza-nákup)" (if the Lender's claim under the Agreement is denominated in euro) or the exchange rate "foreign exchange - sale (devíza-predaj)" (if the Lender's claim under the Agreement is denominated in the currency other than euro), which the Lender normally uses for currency deals in the same currencies at the time of the conversion. For the set-off of claims denominated in different currencies both other than euro the Lender shall convert the amounts through euro using the exchange rate "foreign exchange - purchase (devíza-nákup)" and afterwards the exchange rate "foreign exchange - sale (devíza-predaj)", which the Lender normally uses for currency deals in the same currencies at the time of the conversion.
- (b) At the time of maturity of any claim under the Agreement, the Borrower undertakes to always keep on its Current Account the funds in the amount sufficient for the set-off. If the Borrower satisfied this obligation, the Lender shall perform the set-off, no sooner than on the date of maturity of the respective amount; without prejudice to the Lender's right to demand that the due amount be paid in any other manner,
- (c) If the Borrower does not have a Current Account kept with the Lender, The Borrower shall undertake to keep a Current Account with another bank while meeting all the following conditions:

 - (ii) The Borrower has given – and not cancelled – SEPA Direct Debit mandate from Borrower's Current Account in another bank to the Lender without any limits to the debited amount with a type of payment – recurrent payment - and has fulfilled all other conditions necessary for the Lender to make a SEPA direct debit under Article 16 hereof. In the event of a late change (out of date) of any of the data provided in the SEPA Direct Debit Mandate, the Borrower shall be obliged to forthwith give another SEPA Direct Debit Mandate with updated data (e.g. in case of a change in the Mandate reference, a change in Lender's identifier as Creditor of the direct debit, or a change in the Borrower's Account number to whom the Mandate refers to, etc.);
 - (iii) The Current Account in another bank is kept in EUROS.
- (d) If the Borrower wants to change the Current Account in a different bank for another Current Account kept in a different bank for the purpose of this Agreement, s/he shall be authorized to do so by means of a notification delivered to the Lender at least 10 business days in advance, while the Borrower shall ensure meeting of all conditions specified in this Article, letter (c) above also on the up-to-date changed Current Account.
- (e) The Borrower undertakes to keep the sufficient amount of funds on the Current Account in another bank to allow the Lender to make a SEPA Direct Debit in order to pay any due amount under the Agreement. Should the Borrower meet the above obligation, the Lender shall make the SEPA Direct Debit to pay any due amount under the Agreement; this, however shall not affect the Lender's right to claim due amounts in any other way.

17. Severability of provisions

The individual provisions of the Agreement and each of the documents related thereto are enforceable regardless of each other and invalidity any of them will not affect validity of the remaining provisions except for cases where the importance or any other circumstance related to such invalid provision, makes it obviously indivisible from the remaining relevant provisions.

If any of the provisions is invalid, and such invalidity is caused by a part of the provision, the provision shall apply as if the relevant part had been deleted and both, the Lender and the Borrower, shall make all steps as may be necessary for executing such changes to the relevant provision that will make it valid and that will have effects most similar to the those of the original wording of the relevant provision.

Should the Agreement represent an obligatory published contract under the Act on Free Access to Information No. 211/2000 Coll. as later amended, the Borrower agrees that in compliance with the provision of Article 47a of the Civil Code, such an Agreement may become effective not sooner than on the day following the day of its publication, namely without prejudice to meeting of the conditions precedent and even if the Contracting Parties have agreed otherwise. The method of becoming effective under the preceding sentence refers to the amendment to the Agreement as well.

19. Changes to the Agreement and the General Terms and Conditions for Guarantees

Any dispute, claim or conflict arising out of or in connection with the Agreement (including all questions regarding its existence, validity or termination) may be resolved before a court of arbitration or by another out-of-court settlement where the parties to dispute explicitly agree to that, all that in accordance with special regulations regulating disputes resolution before a court of arbitration or by another out-of-court settlement, e.g. Act No. 244/2002 Coll. on arbitration proceedings as amended and Act No. 420/2004 Coll. on mediation and amendment of certain Acts as amended.
